Re: Salazar et al. v. Cuetes Corp., 20-cv-8167 (KMK) (AEK)
Request for a Settlement Conference

Dear Hon. Kenneth M. Karas,

The Weisenberg Firm, PLLC (the “Firm”), represents Plaintiffs Jose Salazar and the putative FLSA Collective and NYLL Class in the above captioned lawsuit. On behalf of all parties, the Firm writes to request an adjournment of the upcoming Thursday, July 1, 2021, 10:30 a.m. teleconference.

On May 26, 2021, the parties appeared before Hon. Mag. Judge Andrew E. Krause for a hybrid settlement and status conference. This parties continue to make significant progress in regard to discovery. The parties, however, are still working to complete discovery in this Action. The parties believe making further progress in discovery will assist the parties in their settlement discussions. To that end, Magistrate Judge Andrew E. Krause extended fact discovery from June 8, 2021, to August 6, 2021. See ECF Dkt. Text Order dated May 26, 2021.

In the interest of preserving judicial resources, the parties respectfully request the Court adjourn the Thursday, July 1, 2021, 10:30 a.m. teleconference until a date convenient to the Court’s calendar sometime after the August 6, 2021 discovery cut-off date.
